

With a shared goal of giving light to caregivers, Mid South Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association, Jewish Family Service and Elder Law Practice of Timothy L. Takacs are excited to bring you Teepa Snow, MS, OTR/L, FAOTA from Raleigh, North Carolina.

In this energizing, day-long conference, you will gain understanding about the latest dementia research and treatment, learn new ways to have successful interactions with persons who have dementia, transform old thinking to new actions when coping with difficult behaviors and learn how to create a positive environment.

Enjoy breakfast, lunch and additional information furnished by resourceful exhibitors. Don't miss it!

Dementia 360:
A Light in the Dark for Caregivers

Registration deadline: June 5, 2009
Limited seating

PRSRT STD
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
HENDERSONVILLE, TN
PERMIT NO. 426

Dementia 360: A Light in the Dark for Caregivers

A day-long conference for professional and family caregivers

June 24, 2009

Gordon Jewish Community Center
801 Percy Warner Boulevard
Nashville, TN 37205

Hosted by
Alzheimer's Association, Mid South Chapter
Jewish Family Service
Elder Law Practice of Timothy L. Takacs

You Are Invited

Dementia 360: A Light in the Dark for Caregivers is an exciting and energizing program designed to equip health care providers and family caregivers who are dealing with Alzheimer's and other dementias. It is an affordable, one-day program for family and professional caregivers.

Speaker

Teepa Snow, MS, OTR/L, FAOTA is the Director of Education for the Eastern North Carolina Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association in Raleigh, North Carolina. Nationally recognized as a leader, trainer and educator in dementia care. Ms. Snow has received many awards for her clinical and teaching skills.

Directions

From downtown Nashville: take Broadway (also known as West End Ave, Harding Rd., Hwy. 70) due west to Bellevue to the corner of Hwy. 70 and Percy Warner Blvd. Just past St. Henry's Church, turn left on Percy Warner Blvd. Gordon Jewish Community Center is on left. Free parking.

Date, Time and Location

Wednesday, June 24, 2009
8:00 am – 3:30 pm
Gordon Jewish Community Center
801 Percy Warner Boulevard
Nashville, TN 37205

Fees

Includes continental breakfast, lunch, program materials and certificate.

$20 family caregivers

$35 professional and paid caregivers

The Program

- What's New in Dementia Research and Treatment
- Understanding the Different Dementias
- How Environment Affects Abilities and Behaviors
- Coping with Challenging Behaviors
- Creating a Positive Environment for Staff and Patients

Registration Deadline: June 5

For more information:

Jewish Family Service	(615) 356-4234
Elder Law Practice	(615) 824-2571
Alzheimer's Association	(615) 292-4938

Registration Form

Dementia 360:

A Light in the Dark for Caregivers

Wednesday, June 24, 2009

8:00 am to 3:30 pm

Gordon Jewish Community Center
801 Percy Warner Boulevard
Nashville, TN 37205

Name

Organization/ facility (if applicable)

Address

Address

Phone

To register, please return completed form with check ($35/per person for professionals or $20/per person for family caregiver) payable to: Elder Law Practice of Timothy L. Takacs
Deadline: June 5, 2009 (limited seating)

R Confirmations will not be sent; please use cancelled check

R For multiple registrants, copy or provide above information on a separate sheet

R Full refund for written cancellations postmarked before June 5, 2009

R Substitutes are accepted

R Sorry, no faxes or credit/debit cards

Mail registration form with payment to:

Elder Law Practice of Timothy L. Takacs
P.O. Box 364
Hendersonville, TN 37077-0364